

UpTick Coreopsis Wins Industry's Choice Medal Of Excellence Award

Darwin Perennials accepted the Industry's Choice Award at Greenhouse Grower magazine's Evening of Excellence during Cultivate'16.

During the AmericanHort Cultivate'16 Show in Columbus, Ohio, this month, Darwin Perennials was pleased to win the Greenhouse Grower magazine Medal Of Excellence Industry's Choice Award for its new Coreopsis UpTick series. Taking the stage to accept the award was Mike Klopmeier, General Manager, and Karl Batschke, Global Products Manager. They were excited to have the industry's thumbs-up for this variety, and are looking toward the future for this class.

Industry's Choice is decided by an esteemed panel of judges who travel to California Spring Trials and recommend their favorite products as nominees. To learn more about Coreopsis UpTick, click here.
